The Dewan of Mysore,

Mysore.

Dear Sir,

His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales' visit to Madras will, I am quite sure, be of enormous interest to all people in the Madras Presidency, but unfortunately there will be many who will not have the opportunity of taking part in the festivities during His Royal Highness's stay. The Proprietors of the "Madras Mail" realising this have decided to issue a Souvenir in the form of a booklet comprising about 40 pages containing specially written articles and illustrations. The Proprietors are sparing no expenses to make this Souvenir one that will appeal to one and all.

Many English and Indian gentlemen have kindly offered to subscribe for hundreds of copies for free distribution amongst their friends, as well as amongst school children and others who are not in a position to pay for a copy. I might mention that every effort is being made by the Publicity Bureau, Madras to get Government to sanction an expense of Rs.5000/ for copies to be distributed amongst school teachers and children. Might I suggest that you also subscribe for a large number of copies for distribution among the people of your State. This Souvenir, will, I am sure, be a source of enjoyment to the educated classes in your district.

The published price per copy including packing and postage will be Rs.1/4 but for those taking 5000 copies and more the price per copy will be annas 12.

Trusting that I may have the pleasure of receiving your valued order.

I remain, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

R.G.Beckley
